HELLO GOODBYE

STEFAN GUBSER

SONG LET GO FOREVER

Crush & Trummer

Music & Vocals by Stefanie Gubser und Christoph Trummer

He caught sight of life in forty one, proudly as their first son His parents married while she carried him inside two days later he was born during the night soon they moved from town to town never lasted longer than a while all friends he made were gone like a shade of a forbidden dream it seemed

His dad moved out, it didn't help to cry about His neighbours stared in a funny way, there could never be a sunny day soon He grew older, wanna be a soldier He went far away from bad to worse a place to stay learned how to fight and to forget all about the pretty day light and he said: if you never let go you gonna be stuck forever

he returned in nintyone, a broken man without a son without a wife, without a life, without a dream he cared about so he died at a site without a penny luck, nobody knew till they found his truck there was a white flag fastened on the tree and black letters saying if you never let go you gonna be stuck forever
